I have found that this is a real morale problem with these people and believe we should try to fix it.

would like to discuss.

SUBJECT: "Blue" Badges for Language School Instructors [redacted]

1. Attached is a listing of full-time and part-time Language School instructors who have been issued "yellow" badges instead of the "blue" badge used by most Agency personnel. You will note that the majority of these people have been both U.S. citizens and Agency employees for many years. [redacted]

2. In the course of their careers with CIA, these employees have of necessity been involved with sensitive matters and personnel. Their conduct consistently has been characterized by loyalty and professionalism. [redacted]

3. Aside from the morale factors associated with the possession of a "blue" badge, the flexibility of the Language School is impaired when instruction in critical languages cannot take place at buildings other than the Chamber of Commerce Building because the instructors involved lack the proper badge to gain entry. For example, last fall we were unable to respond to a priority requirement for [redacted] instruction at [redacted] Building because our [redacted] instructors have "yellow" badges. [redacted]

4. All of the people on the attached list have demonstrated a great deal of judgement and a genuine concern for security. Your assistance in expediting a "blue" badge for each of them would be greatly appreciated. [redacted]
